On November 7, Doug Thomas presented a check to Gene Williams for $1,100 with club donated shoes for Gene’s College Orientation Workshop and Soles for Souls programs. Gene is a regular guest of the club and a community leader at the Virginia Military Institute (VMI).
2018 FALL PANCAKE DAY!
This Month’s featured Kiwanian is:

Susan Corrigan

Birthplace: Little Rock, Arkansas
Favorite Movie: Sound of Music and Hidden Figures
Best Advice: Be proud of who you are and realize mistakes are learning opportunities.

Most Interesting Place Visited: Tunisia at Christmas time.
Favorite Job: Teaching children!
Most Interesting Thing Ever Done: Flying on the Zero-Gravity Flight (the Vomit Comet!).
Favorite Quote: Once you stop learning, you start dying—Albert Einstein.

Tell Us About Yourself: So much to tell, so little room—ask me sometime about Space Camp, England, Tunisia, Starbase, and more! But . . . I worked in England at an International school before moving to Winchester. There, I had the opportunity to travel all over Europe—Scotland, Wales, Ireland, France, Italy, and Germany. Living and traveling through Europe gave me a much better appreciation for history. In Tunisia, I had the opportunity to see a Roman Colosseum, go on a camel ride in the Sahara, relax in a beautiful oasis, and even visit a couple of the Star Wars sets that are still in the desert. But, it was probably the strangest Christmas I’ve ever had. I went to a church where only French was spoken and saw a huge mural of the Last Supper on the ceiling. The parish priest was painted into the picture, sitting between two of the apostles. In England, I was often mistaken for the Queen, and in Ireland, for a leprechaun. While in Italy, I got lost in the catacombs and wandered for days until I was saved by Harrison Ford while he was filming Indiana Jones The Last Crusade. It’s true, really!

Kiwanis Club of Winchester is successful because of its many volunteer members who give so freely of their time and effort.

THANKS FOR BEING AN UPSTANDING MEMBER OF OUR KIWANIS CLUB, SUSAN!

I hope everyone is excited about the upcoming holiday season. Remember that this is not only a time to be thankful for what we have, but to remember those in our life that are important to us. And not just family, but friends, as well. So as you prepare the turkey and stuffing, don’t forget to reach out to those you may not see or call often and remind them that you are thankful for them being in your life.

I hope that everyone can make some of our community service events this month. Highway cleanup on the 10th, Bright Futures on the 14th, and Salvation Army bell ringing on the 24th.

I’m thankful to be part of such a wonderful group of people who want positive things for our children and community. May God bless and keep us all as winter approaches.
